Dear Ms Goldberg:

I have just received your 2 October 1984 letter, enclosing the original invoice that the mail service here returned to you last month. I cannot understand why the first letter (which you had properly addressed) was returned to you, but I do apologize for the error and the delay.

In any event, I shall enclose my check for $50, to pay for the EIB classified advertisement in the September Perspectives, as noted on the enclosed invoice.

With many thanks for your help,

Yours sincerely,

/s/ J. Kenneth McDonald
